NOTICE CONCERNING COPYRIGHT RESTRICTIONS

Under certain conditions specified in the copyright law of the United States (Title 17, United States Code), libraries and archives may furnish a photocopy or other reproduction. The photocopy or reproduction may not be “used for any purpose other than private study, scholarship or research.” If a user makes a request for, or later uses, a photocopy or reproduction for purposes in excess of “fair use,” that user may be liable for copyright infringement.
GRANT OF NON-EXCLUSIVE LICENSE FOR AUDIO/VISUAL WORK(S)

I, ____________________________, am the owner or the authorized agent for the owner of the copyright to the following audio or audio/visual work or works (the “A/V Work(s)“):

I grant to the J. Paul Getty Museum, an operating program of the J. Paul Getty Trust (collectively, the “Getty”):

1. Permission to exhibit the A/V Work(s) publicly on the Getty’s sites at any time, without securing prior authorization each time; such exhibitions may be defined as display or public performance of the A/V Work(s). This includes the right to reproduce the A/V Work(s), including migration to different technical formats and reproduction in sufficient quantities as necessary in order to preserve, display, transmit, distribute and/or publicly perform the A/V Work(s) in all media now known or hereafter devised. The Getty agrees to follow reasonable and current industry standards to ensure high-quality copies. Permission is also hereby granted to the Getty to use my name, voice, photograph, and likeness in connection with its use of the A/V Work(s).

2. Permission to reproduce and publish still images (if applicable) and clips of up to two (2) minutes in length of the A/V Work(s) in materials arising from or relating to exhibitions, the permanent collection, and the Getty sites. This activity includes reproducing the still images and/or clips in catalogs, gallery pamphlets, announcements, press releases, books and other materials that promote exhibitions or the permanent collection, on the Getty’s web sites and other web sites on which the Getty maintains a branded presence, as well as closed circuit electronic kiosk displays and hand-held gallery guides within the Getty’s facilities. It also includes distributing the clips and/or still images in traditional or digital formats to the press for print and online publicity, as well as filming and photography by the press for news and feature coverage.

3. Permission to reproduce, publish, and distribute still images (if applicable) and clips of up to two (2) minutes in length of the A/V Work(s) in scholarly or educational publications, including, but not limited to, publishing or granting the right to others to publish the still images and/or clips in educational or scholarly books or brochures, journals, pamphlets, transparencies and filmstrips distributed for educational or scholarly uses, and publication of electronic or digital works for educational purposes, such as closed circuit transmissions to support educational programs and educational or editorial pages within a web site (subject to appropriate measures to guard against misappropriation and misuse of digital imagery).

4. Permission to lend the A/V Work(s) and/or a copy of the A/V Work(s) to other venues for exhibition in accordance with the Getty’s standard policies and procedures, including permission to authorize the borrowing institution to display or publicly perform the A/V Work(s).

All reproductions of the A/V Work(s) will bear an appropriate copyright notice as indicated below (to be filled in by copyright owner or agent):

Copyright notice:______________________________________________________________________________

(exact form of copyright notice)

This non-exclusive license does not grant any general right to create and distribute merchandise based on the A/V Work(s) (such as T-shirts, mugs, etc.). In addition, nothing contained herein shall be construed to limit or restrict in any way the Getty’s right to use the A/V Work(s) in accordance with limitations on copyright holders’ exclusive rights set forth in the Copyright Act, as it may be amended from time-to-time, such as fair use.

I confirm that I am authorized and able to grant the permissions given in this non-exclusive license, that in granting these permissions, I have not violated any laws or breached any prior commitments to any third party, and that, to the best of my knowledge, there is no third party who owns or claims to own copyright in the A/V Work(s) or who alleges that my activity or this permission infringes or will infringe his or her intellectual property rights, and, the A/V Work(s) do not violate any right to privacy or publicity, or otherwise violate any law or any person’s personal or property rights.
